

Sales Leadership Minor Application

Students applying to the Sales Leadership Minor should know the following:

- 1) Applying to the Sales Leadership Minor is highly competitive and communication skills weigh very heavily in the admission decision (written, verbal, and non-verbal) – there is no guarantee that you will be admitted;
- 2) By applying to the minor, you are agreeing to allow the selection committee to review your grades in relevant minor courses, and you give your permission to the Managing Director to consult with the professor of MKT 313 (if currently enrolled) to discuss your mid-semester grade and to seek his/her recommendation for admission;
- 3) By applying to the minor, you give your permission for your image (photographs, videotapes) to be displayed on the minor website or in promotional brochures;
- 4) Experiential learning hours and internship experiences begin accruing after you are admitted to the program, and you should begin tracking them in a spreadsheet once admitted;
- 5) During your interview you will be asked to do a 5-7 minute sales role play on your choice of product or service. There are no set parameters other than you use the skills taught in MKT 313.
- 6) The Sales Leadership Minor has a strict code of ethics, and ANY forms of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated and could result in expulsion from the program and/or the university.
